President, United States Lifesaving Association: USLA is America's nonprofit, professional association of beach lifeguards and open water rescuers. USLA works to reduce the incidence of death and injury in the aquatic environment through public education, national lifeguard standards, training programs, promotion of high levels of lifeguard readiness, and other means. USLA provides the Lifeguard Agency Certification Program, Aquatic Agency Response Team program, www.usla.org website, and conducts the annual USLA National Lifeguard Championships. USLA is the USA's Full Member to the International Life Saving Federation. November 2003 - present

President, Americas Region and Vice-President, International Life Saving Federation: ILS is the world's international organization of lifesavers, promoting world water safety through a wide variety of initiatives. ILS promotes drowning prevention efforts, sets international lifesaving standards, conducts the biennial World Lifesaving Championships, and hosts lifesaving conferences. The President of the Americas Region oversees ILS activities throughout the Western Hemisphere (including North, Central, South America, the Caribbean, and Hawaii). 1995 – present

Commissioner of Lifesaving, International Life Saving Federation - The ILS Lifesaving Commission seeks to reduce the incidence of drowning and other aquatic injuries throughout the world: through the development of organized lifesaving in areas of the world where it does not exist; support for existing lifesaving organisations; support for standardised public information and education; tracking the incidence of drowning throughout the world and publishing this data; development and identification of best medical practices; reviewing, identification, and development of best practices in rescue; and identification of best practices in the training, staffing, and equipping of lifesavers. The Lifesaving Commission includes the Rescue Committee, Development Committee, World Drowning Report Committee, Education Committee, and Medical Committee. The Commissioner chairs a commission composed of the chairs of each of the committees and oversees its work. September 2004 - 2008

Lifeguard Chief, City of San Diego Lifeguard Service and (concurrently) Harbormaster, Mission Bay. Employees: 240 approximately. Annual budget: $10 million. Agency responsibilities include water rescue of swimmers, marine firefighting, law enforcement via citation and arrest, coastal cliff rescue, swiftwater rescue (flood rescue), ocean rescue of boaters up to three miles offshore, staffing of a 24-hour dispatch center with full 9-1-1 capabilities, and public safety education programs. Responsibilities included participating in citywide labor negotiations, membership on the City Labor Advisory Committee, drafting five state legislative bills involving lifeguard and boating safety related issues ultimately enacted into California law -- including the California Boating Safety Act of 1999 -- and presiding over a biennial citizen committee to help develop boating safety and water use policies. January 1988 – September 2001 (Lifeguard Lieutenant 1986 – 1988; Lifeguard Sergeant 1985 – 1986; Lifeguard 1979 – 1985).

Co-Founder and Member, United States Lifeguard Standards Coalition: This collaborative effort of the American Red Cross, United States Lifesaving Association and YMCA of the USA seeks to research, identify and promote evidence-based standards for lifeguarding. (2006 – present)
