DAVID M. NISSON
Attorney at Law

Sincerely,

I would highly recommend Jess E. Dines to anyone needing a certified document examiner. You can call me any time at the office phone number above or on my cell number at (714) 264-2619 if you require further details or information regarding my experience with this well-qualified gentleman who saved our trial for us on such short notice.

As a matter of fact, the jury said that based on the education they received from the testimony of Jess E. Dines, they could even detect additional disguised letters by the victim which were not even referred to during the trial. They were thoroughly impressed with the qualifications and credentials and testimony of Jess E. Dines.

Jess E. Dines saved the day. He rendered his expert opinion and the jury believed that the victim in our case, who had denied writing the questioned document, in fact did write the document and concluded that she was completely lying about it which helped us obtain not guilty verdicts for all of the most serious charges in the case.

Lo and behold, I left his house that evening with a chart prepared for the jury to see the following day on the questioned document along with all of the disguised letters about which Mr. Dines was prepared to testify.

I called a number of certified document examiners and no one was willing to prepare to testify as an expert witness on such short notice. Then I called Jess E. Dines at home in Laguna Beach and was willing to sit down and look at what I had approximately 4:00 p.m. on April 18, 2011. He welcomed me down to his beautiful home in Laguna Beach and was willing to sit down and look at what I had.

On April 18, 2011, I was confronted with the sudden need, right in the middle of a felony jury trial, for a certified document examiner. I needed this expert witness to testify the following day, April 19, 2011.

I am writing this letter on behalf of JESS E. DINES, certified document examiner, to express my gratitude for the excellent job he did to help me in the case of People v. Millan, Orange County Superior Court case number 10HF0061.

Very Truly Yours,

Andrew D. Weiss

Should you have any questions or wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Mr. Dines testified as a expert document examiner on behalf of my client in Vietnam Telecom International v. Inyang, a case tried in the Los Angeles Superior Court over a five week period. Although the plaintiff's counsel spent some time attempting to attack Mr. Dines' credentials, the Court rejected counsel's arguments and ruled Mr. Dines was qualified to testify. Mr. Dines testified regarding disputed signatures on several letters. His testimony assisted my client in obtaining a defense verdict against a claim of $50 million. The jury returned a $9 million verdict against another defendant represented by separate counsel.

I write to recommend the services of Jess E. Dines as a expert witness document examiner. Mr. Dines is well qualified, having testified as an expert witness in many cases. He has written a textbook on document examination and an expert witness manual. He appeared for trial timely and fully prepared to testify.

Ladies and Gentlemen:
