

CURRICULUM VITA

Personal Information:

Address:

Home:

161 River Road, Lyme NH 03768

Work:

Philip J. Kinsler, Ph.D., P.C.
Clinical & Forensic Psychology
161 River Road, Lyme NH
03768

Telephone:

Work: (603) 795-4441
Work Fax: (603) 795-4461
Home: (603) 795-4553
E-mail:
psyfil@earthlink.net

Personal Information:

Two children
Birth Date: 2/15/47

Licensure Information:

New Hampshire Licensed Psychologist # 173
Vermont Licensed Psychologist—Doctorate #746
National Register of Health Service Providers in Psychology # 20494
Certificate of Professional Qualification (CPQ), Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards # 376 (National Credential)
Prescribing Psychologist's Register (Charter Member)
Diplomate and Fellow, American Board of Forensic Examiners
Diplomate, Forensic Clinical Psychology, American Board of Psychological Specialties

Education:

- A.B. cum laude, with Honors in Psychology, Clark University, Worcester, MA, June 4, 1967.
- M.A. in Clinical Psychology, State University of New York at Buffalo, June 1, 1970.
- Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology, State University of New York at Buffalo, September 1, 1972.

Honors & Awards:

- 1) Psi Chi (National Honor Society in Psychology), Clark University
- 2) United States Public Health Service Pre-doctoral Research Fellowship, for research into attention deficit in schizophrenia. August 1968 - August 1970, SUNY at Buffalo.
- 3) Provost's Discretionary Fund grant to attend the Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse and Multiple Personality Disorder. Antioch New England Graduate School, June, 1991.
- 4) Elected Fellow, New Hampshire Psychological Association, 1982
- 5) Appointed to Board of Examiners of Psychologists, State of New Hampshire by Governor

- Judd Gregg, August 1991, as the academic psychologist on the Board.
- 6) Co-Chair, 2004 International Conference, International Society for Study of Dissociation [ISSD], with Christine A. Courtois.
 - 7) Director for Clinical & Ethical Issues, Leadership Council on Child Abuse & Family Violence, 2005-present
 - 8) Teacher of the Year, Dartmouth Medical School Psychiatry Residency Program, 2006.
 - 9) Co-Chair, Task Force on Ethics in Forensic Cases involving Trauma (American Psychological Association Divisions of Trauma, Child and Adolescent, Family Psychology, and Psychology-Law).

Publications and Presentations (1992 to present)

- 1) Kinsler, P. J., Singer, D. L., Trierweiler, S. J., & Thompson, L. (1992, January). Evaluation at the Front Gate: A Values-Based Admissions Process. Paper presented at the National Council of Schools of Professional Psychology Mid-Winter Conference, Evaluation in Professional Psychology, Freeport, Bahamas.
- 2) Kinsler, P. J., 1992, The Centrality of Relationship: What's Not Being Said. Dissociation: Progress in the Dissociative Disorders, V, 3, September.
- 3) Kinsler, P. J., 1992, Response to Commentaries on Centrality of Relationship, Dissociation: Progress in the Dissociative Disorders, V, 3, September.
- 4) Kinsler, P.J. (1993, January). Postdoctoral Education, Prescription Privileges and Professional Survival: A View from the Board of Examiners. Paper presented at the National Council of Schools of Professional Psychology Mid-Winter Conference, Training Models in Professional Psychology: San Diego CA.
- 5) Kinsler, P.J. (June, 1992) Multiple Personality And Severe Dissociative Responses: A Relationship Based Perspective. Training workshop presented at Antioch Institute, Keene, NH.
- 6) Kinsler, P. J. (December, 1992) Abuse, Children, and Dissociative Disorders. Pediatric Grand Rounds, North Shore Children's Hospital, Salem MA.
- 7) Kinsler, P.J. (1993, June) The Centrality of Relationship. Paper presented at Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse and Multiple Personality Disorder, Alexandria, VA.
- 8) Kinsler, P.J. (1993, September), Relationship Issues in the Therapy of Severe Abuse Survivors, Paper presented at Brookside Hospital, Nashua, NH.
- 9) Warshaw, S., & Kinsler, P.J. (1993, February) Understanding and Treating Multiple Personality Disorder. Paper presented at Catholic Medical Center, Manchester, NH, New Hampshire Psychological Organization.
- 10) Kinsler, P.J. (1992, November) Private Practice: An Idea Whose Time Has Passed? Paper presented at Antioch New England Graduate School, Keene, NH.
- 11) Kinsler, P.J. (1993, November) Multiple Personality Disorder, Program presented on WNHQ Radio, Milford, NH.
- 12) Kinsler, P.J. (1993, December) Dissociation in Response to Trauma: Training for Bosnian Mental Health Professionals, Paper presented at Womankind Counseling Center, Concord, NH
- 13) Kinsler, P.J. (1994, January) Seen Your Tailor or Dressmaker Lately: Musings on the Commercial Future of Education in Professional Psychology, Paper presented at

- National Council of Schools and Programs of Professional Psychology Midwinter Conference, Cancun, Mexico.
- 14) Kinsler, P.J. (1994, June), Avoiding/Coping with Allegations of Professional Misconduct. Paper presented at Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse and Multiple Personality, Alexandria, VA.
 - 15) Kinsler, P.J. (1995, October) Abused Children and Dissociative Disorders. Paper presented at Attorney General's Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect, Waterville Valley, NH.
 - 16) Kinsler, P.J. (1995, April) Boundaries, Bills and Babies: Risk Management in a Litigious Age. Paper presented at Antioch Institute, Keene, NH.
 - 17) Kinsler, P.J. (1995, April) Prescription Privileges and Professional Survival. Paper presented at Antioch New England Graduate School, Keene, NH.
 - 18) Kinsler, P.J. (unpublished manuscript), Special Relationships: Therapy for Adult Survivors of Severe Abuse.
 - 19) Kinsler, P.J., (unpublished manuscript), Managed Careless: The Attack on Psychotherapy.
 - 20) Kinsler, P.J., A story for Marcie., Dissociation: Progress in the Dissociative Disorders, VIII, (2), June, 1995, 100-103.
 - 21) Kinsler, P.J. (1995, October) Controversies in Multiple Personality Disorder., Attorney General's Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect, Waterville Valley, NH.
 - 22) Kinsler, P.J. (1995, October) Treatment of Multiple Personality Disorder., Attorney General's Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect, Waterville Valley, NH.
 - 23) Kinsler, P.J. (May, 1996) Trauma, Memory, Multiplicity and Managed Care., Paper presentation, Antioch New England Graduate School
 - 24) Kinsler, P.J., & Turkus, J.A, (June, 1996), The Suicidal Patient: Countertransference and Intervention, Paper presentation, Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse, Trauma, and Dissociation, Washington, DC.
 - 25) Kinsler, P.J., Saxman, A., & Parks, J., (October, 1996) The Insanity and Diminished Capacity Defenses. Paper presented at Vermont Law School, South Royalton, VT.
 - 26) Kinsler, P.J. (June, 97) Recognizing and using mental health defenses. Paper presented at Defender General's Conference, Burlington, VT.
 - 27) Kinsler, P.J. & Saxman, A., (June, 97) Consultation clinic on mental health law. Presented at Defender General's Conference, Burlington, VT.
 - 28) Kinsler, P.J. & Saxman, A., (1998, February) Surviving and thriving in the Courtroom: Training workshop presented for New Hampshire Psychological Association, Catholic Medical Center, Manchester, NH.
 - 29) Kinsler, P.J. (1998, March) Interviewing Children: Stepping through the minefield with grace, paper presented to School Supervisory Union 29, Keene NH.
 - 30) Kinsler, P.J., (1998, June) Children in Court: What do we now know?, Paper presented to Defender General's Conference, State of Vermont, Burlington, VT.
 - 31) Kinsler, P.J., Appel, R., & Prine, B. (1998, June) Representing the developmentally disabled—panel presentation, Defender General's Conference, Burlington VT.
 - 32) Kinsler, P.J., (1998, September) Assessing the competency of mentally retarded defendants: Use of the CAST-MR and Adaptive Behavior Scales, Interpreter Subcommittee of Equal Access Committee, Vermont Supreme Court.

- 33) Kinsler, P.J. (1998, December) Children in Court: What do we now know?, Vermont Bar Journal, 24, 4, 47-49.
- 34) Kinsler, PJ (1999, Feb/March) Guest lectures, Dissociation and Psychological Trauma, and Psychological Trauma in the Courtroom, Antioch New England Graduate School.
- 35) Kinsler, P.J. (1999, March) The insanity defense, guest lecture, Vermont Law School, South Royalton, Vt.
- 36) Kinsler, P.J., & Defant-Berlin, M., (September 1999) Mental Health Issues in Restorative Justice, paper presented at Restorative Justice: The Heart of the Matter Conference, sponsored by Reinventing Justice, Greenfield, MA, Greenfield Community College.
- 37) Kinsler, P.J. (January 2000), Interviewing Children about Alleged Sexual Abuse: What Does Science Now Know? Invited Address, New Hampshire Psychological Association Midwinter Conference, Laconia, NH.
- 38) Kinsler, P.J. Burchardt, S., & Appel, R. (summer 2000), Understanding, Identifying and Accommodating Persons with Intellectual Challenges, Vermont Judicial College presentation.
- 39) Kinsler, P.J., (February 2002) Forensic Psychology: Presentation to the NH Psychological Association.
- 40) Kinsler, P.J., Saxman, A., & Fishman, D., March, 2005, The Vermont Defendant Accommodation Project: A Case Study; Psychology, Public Policy and Law.
- 41) Kinsler, P.J. & Brenner, J., Offender Risk Assessments: Promise and Problems, Paper presented at Defender General's Conference, Burlington VT, June 2002.
- 42) Kinsler, P.J. & Brenner, J., (September 2002), Offender Risk Assessments: Scientific Promise and Problems, State of NH Public Defender's Conference, Sept., 2002.
- 43) Kinsler, P., Chu, J., Courtois, C., & Dalenberg, C., The Impossible Patient, 2003, November, ISSD International Conference, Chicago IL.
- 44) Kinsler, P., Parks, J., Building Blocks for a Self, 2003, November, ISSD International Conference, Chicago IL.
- 45) Bi-monthly column, The Forensic Corner, ISSD News. Including columns on male abuse survivors in the prison system; risk management; managing and responding to ethics complaints. In press articles on ethical issues in complex custody matters.
- 46) Kinsler, P., Chu, J., Courtois, C., & Barach, P., Risk Management in Complex Trauma Cases, ISSD Conference, New Orleans, LA., 2004
- 47) Kinsler, P., Chu, J., Courtois, C., & Dalenberg, C., The Impossible Patient: Building Alliances, not struggles, ISSD Conference, New Orleans, LA., 2004.
- 48) Letter to the Editor, Boston Sunday Globe, 'Child Sexual Abuse is Harmful,' 2/27/2005.
- 49) Kinsler, P, Courtois, C., Chu, J., & Steele, K., The Impossible Patient, 2005, ISSD International Conference, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
- 50) Kinsler, P., Child Abuse Interviews: The Good, The Bad, & The Ugly, 2005, ISSD Conference, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
- 51) Kinsler, P., Chu, J., Steele, K., & Courtois, C. (2006) Dilemmas in Treating the

- Dissociative Patient, ISSTD International Conference, Philadelphia PA.
- 52) Kinsler, P., Frankl, S., & Fridley, D., (2006). Relational Healing for Trauma, ISSTD International Conference, Philadelphia PA.
 - 53) Williams., T., Chefetz, R., Bowman, E., & Kinsler, P., (2006), Difficult Case Conference, ISSTD International Conference, Philadelphia, PA.
 - 54) Kinsler, P., & Saxman, A., Traumatized Offenders: Don't Look Now, But Your Jail's Also Your Mental Health Center. (2007) J. Trauma & Dissoc., Vol 8 # 2, 81-96.
 - 55) Kinsler, P., & Saxman, A., Traumatized Offenders: Don't Look Now, But Your Jail's Also Your Mental Health Center. (2007), In Quina, K., & Brown, L., Trauma & Dissociation in Convicted Offenders: Gender, Science, and Treatment Issues, Haworth Medical Press, Binghamton NY.
 - 56) Kinsler, P., Courtois, C., & Frankel, S. Therapeutic Alliance and Risk Management (2009) In Courtois, C. & Ford, J. (Eds.) Treating Complex Traumatic Stress Disorders, Guilford Press, NY.
 - 57) Kinsler, P., Frankel, S., & Fridley, D., (2008). Relational Healing for Trauma, ISSTD International Conference, Chicago IL.
 - 58) Kinsler, P., & Courtois, C., (2008) Ethical Issues in Trauma Treatment, ISSTD International Conference, Chicago, IL.
 - 59) Steele, K., Courtois, C., Kinsler, P., & Chefetz, R., (2009), Invited Preconference Institute; Dissociation & Complex Traumatic Stress Disorders for Novices, ISSTD International Conference, Washington, D.C.
 - 60) Kinsler, P., & Frankl, S., (2009) Invited Master Class, Forensic Issues in Trauma & Dissociation, ISSTD International Conference, Washington DC.
 - 61) Kinsler, P., & Courtois, C., (2009) Invited Master Class, Ethics in Trauma & Dissociation Practice, ISSTD International Conference, Washington DC.

Peer Reviewer Experience

1. Dissociation: Progress in the Dissociative Disorders (Official Journal of ISSD)
2. Professional Psychology: Research & Practice (APA Journal)
3. Journal of Trauma & Dissociation (Official Journal of the ISSTD)
4. Psychological Trauma (Official Journal of the Division of Trauma, APA)

Academic Experience

- 1) National Institute of Mental Health Traineeship, SUNY at Buffalo, September 1967 - July 1968. Research assistant to Dr. Eliot Gale, involved in anxiety & psychophysiology research.
- 2) U.S. Public Health Service Pre-doctoral Research Fellowship, SUNY at Buffalo, August 1968 - August 1970. Research on improving schizophrenic's performance on cognitive tasks by manipulating attention variables. With Dr. E. Neil Murray.
- 3) Instructor in Statistics & Experimental Psychology, SUNY at Buffalo, September 1968 - May, 1969.

- 4) Instructor in Tests & Measurements, SUNY at Buffalo, July 1970 - August 1970.
- 5) Clinical Supervisor & Training Program Director, Niagara County Drug Abuse Program, Niagara Falls, New York. May 1971 - August, 1975. Developed and managed training program for 30 entry level therapists & drug abuse counselors. Participation in training of several hundred Hotline volunteers. Extensive clinical & administrative supervision of three community based outreach programs, and of professional psychologists, social workers and paraprofessional counselors.
- 6) Dissertation - SUNY at Buffalo - "Ego Identity Status and Intimacy" - a study of the importance of a firm sense of personal identity in allowing persons to risk intimacy & close relationships with others. August, 1972 - Chairman Dr. James E. Marcia.
- 7) Adjunct Faculty - Antioch New England Graduate School, Keene, New Hampshire - January 1976 - June 1977. Taught courses in adolescent psychology & psychotherapy.
- 8) Adjunct Faculty - Antioch New England Graduate School, Keene, New Hampshire - - January 1979 - May 1980. Taught courses in Personality Development & Dynamics, Psychoanalytic Theory, Professional Development Seminar in Counseling Psychology. Responsible for student advisement.
- 9) Coordinator, Masters of Arts in Counseling Psychology Program -Antioch New England Graduate School, Keene, New Hampshire - May 1980 - June, 1982 - Responsible for course/curriculum development, faculty supervision and evaluation, student advisement, and team building for faculty & students.
- 10) Acting Associate Director, Doctoral Program In Clinical Psychology, Antioch New England Graduate School, Keene, New Hampshire - 1982. Participation in the design, development, and implementation of the new doctoral program in clinical psychology at Antioch New England. Participation in obtaining of state and regional accreditation for this program and in faculty and student recruitment.
- 11) Senior Associate Faculty Member & Chair, Doctoral Admissions Committee, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology - Antioch New England Graduate School, Keene, New Hampshire - June, 1982 - June 1997. Teach courses in Individual Psychotherapy; Psychopathology & Behavior Disorders; Professional Development Seminar in Clinical Psychology, Psychotherapy of Borderline & Narcissistic Personality Disordered Patients; Advanced Clinical Case Conference, and Psychological Ethics. Supervise student clinical work & practicum/internship placement activities. Responsible for development, direction, & management of an innovative admissions process for student applicants.
- 12) Member, Executive Committee, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology - Antioch New England Graduate School, May 1992 - August, 1993. Member, as representative of associate faculty group, of the central management group of the doctoral program, which is responsible for program direction and policy, curriculum, and personnel matters.
- 13) Senior Associate Faculty-Antioch New England Graduate School, 1997-2002. Lectures in areas of specialty including psychological trauma and forensic psychology, teach Case Conference in Psychology, a course in supervision of students' clinical and testing work, and parts of Trauma course. Involved in ongoing development of Antioch's continued education program for mental health professionals preparing for diplomate applications in forensic psychology.

- 14) Adjunct Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Dartmouth Medical School, 2002—present—Supervise Psychiatry Residents in diagnosis & psychotherapy.
- 15) Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Active Clinical Staff, Section of Adult Psychiatry, Instructor of Psychiatry (effective Jan. 1, 2010).

Clinical & Community Psychology Experience

- 1) Attendant, Brooklyn State Hospital, Brooklyn, New York, June - September 1964, 1965, 1966. Participated in recreational & occupational therapy with patients, performed custodial tasks.
- 2) Caseworker, New York City Department of Social Services, June - September 1967. Responsible for caseload of 30-40 families. Intervention in financial, school, housing & family problems.
- 3) Nightwatcher, Suicide Prevention & Crisis Service, Buffalo, New York. March 1969 - January, 1970. Telephone counseling to suicidal people, people with emotional problems, family problems, troubled &/or drug abusing teenagers, etc.
- 4) Clinical Associate, Suicide Prevention & Crisis Service, Buffalo, NY - January 1970 - January 1971. A paid position which involved telephone counseling, as above, and also supervision of other phone counselors. Helped to design treatment plans for "chronic callers," had input into volunteer policies & training at the center.
- 5) Psychology Intern, Psychological Clinic, SUNY at Buffalo & Suicide Prevention & Crisis Service, Buffalo, New York. September, 1969 - August, 1970. Individual, group, family & short-term crisis intervention therapy. Psychological evaluations. Participated in volunteer training at Suicide Prevention & Crisis Service. Under the supervision of Dr. James E. Marcia, Director, Psychological Clinic & Dr. Gene Brockopp, Director, S.P.C.S. Formal internship.
- 6) Staff Therapist, Suicide Prevention & Crisis Service, Buffalo, New York. June 1970 - August, 1970. Half time position involving crisis intervention therapy, development of treatment plans for chronic callers, screening of volunteer applicants, development of volunteer supervision.
- 7) Psychology Intern, Student Counseling Center, SUNY at Buffalo, Buffalo, New York. September, 1970 - August, 1971. Formal internship. Individual & group therapy, communications training and organizational consultation to various University Departments. Consultant to the development of Sunshine House, a University based telephone hotline & drop in crisis center. Volunteer training for Sunshine House. Provision of creative mental health services to the SUNY at Buffalo community. Under the supervision of Dr. Nathan Altucher, Director, and Dr. Dorothy Adema, Associate Director.
- 8) Supervisor of Clinical Services, Niagara County Drug Abuse Program (later Niagara County Hotline & Insight Counseling Centers), Niagara Falls, New York. August 1971 - August 1975.

Supervision and management of county-wide adolescent treatment program, including three service delivery centers and a staff of over 30 therapists. Participated in development of a community outreach program philosophy, providing consultation to doctors, hospitals, police departments, group homes, service clubs and other community service providers.

Consultant to emergency room of Niagara Falls Memorial Medical Center. Supervision of The Hotline, which became the emergency services unit of the Niagara Falls Community Mental Health Center. Development of psychiatric Emergency Room at the medical center.

- 9) Consultant, City of Niagara Falls, Police - Community Services "Minibike" program. Developed staff training and development program for Juvenile Delinquency Program. May 1973 - January 1974.
- 10) Lecturer, Police Academy, Niagara County Community College - academic years 1973, 1974. Helped train police in family crisis intervention skills, intervening in domestic disputes, handling psychiatric emergencies.
- 11) Coordinator, Intake & Emergency Services and Clinical Coordinator, Monadnock Family & Mental Health Service, Keene, New Hampshire. November 1975 - August 1978. Development and ongoing coordination of agency wide intake and assessment procedure to improve client screening and treatment planning.

Designed, implemented, and supervised 24 hour emergency service program. As member of a 3 person clinical coordinating team provided clinical direction & supervision to a clinical staff of over 80. Carried outpatient case load consisting of individual, child, family, marital, & adolescent cases. Member of HELP team, the local area child abuse consultation/intervention team.
- 12) Independent Practice, Keene, New Hampshire. August 1978 - March 1986.
Performed individual, marital, child & family therapy on an outpatient basis. Performed psychological evaluations for school systems, Department of Vocational Rehabilitation, NH Department of Child and Youth Services (DCYS), individual clients. Supervision of other therapists. Consultation to school systems, community groups.
- 13) President, University Associates in Psychology, p.c. - March 1986 - July 1991. Developed and managed a large group practice composed of Antioch New England Psychology department faculty. UAP provided psychological services to individuals, families, & organizations. Psychotherapy, therapist training and supervision, consultation, psychological evaluations and a postdoctoral residency program for clinical psychologists were among the services provided. Responsible for day-to-day management as well as overall program direction & design.
- 14) Treasurer, University Associates in Psychology, p.c., Keene, New Hampshire. July 1991 - June 1997. Member of Board of Directors and responsible for overall financial management of the corporation.
- 15) Consulting Psychologist, City of Keene Police Department, Critical Incident Team, 1996—1998. Critical incident stress de-briefing for officers who have experienced job related trauma, as required. Consultation and referral of officers when necessary.
- 16) President, Philip J. Kinsler, Ph.D., Clinical & Forensic Psychology, P.C. June, 1997—present. Carry caseload of adult survivors of psychological trauma

Provide supervision and training to other trauma therapists. Provide forensic psychology services including civil and family matters, competence to stand trial, criminal responsibility evaluations, and testimony as required. Training for attorneys, judges, victim-witness advocates in mental health issues in the courts, including psychological trauma, recognizing mentally disordered defendants, recognizing developmentally delayed defendants. Training programs for mental health professionals in psychology and law.

Psychology Professional Affairs Activities

1. Member, New Hampshire Psychologist's Legislative Committee - 1979, 1980, 1998 to present. Participation in development of Psychology's response to the sunset process in New Hampshire.
2. Vice - Chair, New Hampshire Psychologist's Legislative Committee - 1980. Continued work on resolution of intra-psychological disputes, sunset response, & liaison with APA regarding sunset response.
3. President Elect, New Hampshire Psychological Association - 1980. On Board of Directors of NHPA. Careful work on restoring relationships with the NH Society of Psychologists, moving towards reuniting the two groups trying to represent Psychology in the state. Coordination of NHPA legislative activities & approaches, responses to new sunrise initiatives & etc.
4. President, New Hampshire Psychological Association - 1981. Successfully coordinated (with much help) the reunification of Psychology's two competing representative bodies, developed joint legislative strategies, helped development/improvement of a professional continued education program. Developed Psychology's response to legislative questioning of mandated mental health benefit laws.
5. Past President, New Hampshire Psychological Organization -1982. Sat on the Board of the reunited organization. Aided in obtaining APA recognition. Continued participation in legislative & continued education activities.
6. Chair, Insurance Committee, New Hampshire Psychological Organization- 1982 -1985. Liaison to Blue Cross/Blue Shield, coordination work on Psychology's response to legislative initiatives from Clinical Social Workers & Mental Health Counselors.
7. Elected Fellow, New Hampshire Psychological Organization - 1982
8. Member, Board of Directors, New Hampshire Psychological Association & Liaison to New Hampshire Board of Examiners of Psychologists - 1990 - 1991. Attend Board of Examiners of Psychologists meetings. Aid in coordination of the response of NHPO and the Board of Examiners to legislative matters. Maintain communication between the two bodies. Represent views of each body to the other.
9. New Hampshire Board of Examiners of Psychology and Mental Health Practice, Member – August 1991- August 1996. As the academic psychologist on the Board, review of all applications for certification in New Hampshire and evaluation of the essay exams which are a part of the NH certification process. As Chair of the Rules and Regulations Subcommittee, administered a complete re-writing of the rules and regulations of the Board, including institution of required peer review and peer consultation provisions. As Hearing Officer for ethical cases, drafted formal notices of hearing, and served as Presiding Officer at disciplinary hearings of psychologists, social workers, and pastoral counselors. Perform legislative liaison.

10. Chair, New Hampshire Board of Examiners of Psychology and Mental Health Practice, 1993, 1995. Member from 1990-1997. Responsible for management of the Board, presiding officer at Board meetings/hearings, hearing officer for ethical cases. Liaison to Attorney General's and Governor's Offices. Establish and direct Application Review Committee.
- 11) Member, New Hampshire Psychological Association Legislative Committee, 1998. Continued input to legislative issues affecting mental health in New Hampshire including proposed HMO regulation.
- 12) Member, Professional Conduct Committee, New Hampshire Board of Examiners of Mental Health Practice, 1999-2003. Responsible for investigation of complaints of professional misconduct by members of regulated mental health professionals in New Hampshire. Conduct informal and formal investigations, negotiate settlement agreements in collaboration with Administrative Prosecutions Unit of the NH Attorney General's Office, aid in drafting notices of hearing if formal Board hearings are required.

Continuing Professional Education Activities

1. Safe Intimacy: Problems & Possibilities in Treating Couples. David Treadway, Ph.D., 12/15/88.
2. The Courage To Heal Seminar. Laura Davis, 1/13/89
3. Divorce & Remarriage: Effects on Children. Richard Gardner, M.D., 4/4/89
4. Ethnic Sensitivity & Cultural Issues. Bailey Jackson, Ph.D. & R. Hardiman, Ph.D., 4/14/89
5. Treating Survivors of Child Sexual Abuse. Denise Gelinias, Ph.D., 5/5/89
6. Advances in Object Relations Theory, Therapy, & Supervision. Colby Smith, Ph.D., 3/30/90
7. Therapeutic Metaphors: Hypnotic and Multi-Dimensional Approaches. Joyce Mills, Ph.D., 4/6 – 4/7/90
8. Short-Term Dynamic Approaches to Therapy. Hans Strupp, Ph.D., 6/1/90.
9. The Offending Therapist. Jack Danilian, Ph.D., 10/12/90
10. Psychological Trauma. Bessel van der Kolk, M.D., 11/16/90
11. Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse and Multiple Personality Disorder. 6/20 – 6/24/91

12. Eighth International Conference, International Society for the Study of Multiple Personality Disorder and Dissociation. 11/12 – 11/17/91.
13. National Council of Schools of Professional Psychology Mid-Winter Conference, Evaluation in Professional Psychology, Freeport, Bahamas, January 30 - February 2, 1992.
14. Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse and Multiple Personality Disorder. 6/24 - 6/28/92.
15. National Council of Schools of Professional Psychology Mid-Winter Conference, Training Models in Professional Psychology, San Diego, CA., January 20 - 23, 1993.
16. National Council of Schools of Professional Psychology Mid-Winter Conference, Standards in Professional Psychology, Reflection and Integration, Cancun, Mexico, January 1994.
17. Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse and Multiple Personality, June, 1994. (including Altman, B., Brief Hypnotic Interventions & Napier, N., Solution Focused Therapy)
18. Hornik, Heather, Short-Term Treatment of Children and Families, April 1994.
19. Pekarik, Gene , A Pragmatic Approach to Treatment Abbreviation, June 1994.
- 20) Donovan, Cleary M., Pragmatic Interventions with Children, October, 1995.
- 21) Prescribing Psychologist's Register, Hirsch, J., Pharm.D., — Psychopharmacology training program 1996.
- 22) Eastern Regional Conference on Abuse, Trauma and Dissociation, June, 1995.
- 23) EMDR Training Program—June 1996.
- 24) EMDR advanced consultation training—Joanne G. Parks, M.D.—September & May, 1997.
- 25) Pekarik, G., Marketplace Realities & short-term therapy, 6/97.
- 26) Boston University Conference on Psychological Trauma, Bessel van der Kolk, MD, Conference Director, 4 days, April 1998.
- 27) Boston University Conference on Psychological Trauma, Bessel van der Kolk, MD, Conference Director, 3 days, April 1999.
- 28) American Board of Forensic Psychology Training Conference, 8/98.
- 28) American Psychological Association/American Bar Association Joint Conference on Psychology and Criminal Law, including presentations on the insanity defense, malingering and deception, eyewitness identification, juvenile justice, competency to stand trial and to waive Miranda rights and additional presentations. (October 1999)

- 29) American Academy of Forensic Psychology Training Conference- (9/2000).
- 30) International Society for Traumatic Stress Studies [ISTSS] International Conference, 2001.
- 31) International Society for Study of Dissociation [ISSD] International Conference, 2002.
- 32) ISTSS [partial] and ISSD International Conference, 2003
- 33) ISTSS [partial] and ISSD International Conference, 2004
- 34) Ethics in Organizational Psychology, APA Ethics Course, 2005.
- 35) ISTSS [partial] and ISSD International Conference, 2005.
- 36) ISSTD International Conference, 2006, Los Angeles CA.
- 37) Brodsky, The Expert Expert Witness, APA Books.
- 38) Knapp & VanderCreek, Practical Ethics.
- 39) ISSTD International Conference, Philadelphia PA, 2007.
- 40) ISSTD International Conference, Chicago IL., 2008.
- 41) ISSTD International Conference, Washington DC, 2009.

Current Academic Interests

1. Emerging directions in professional psychology training, including prescription privileges, managed-care, hospital practice, and psychology and law. Quality control procedures for professional psychology, including student admissions, student evaluation, evaluation of competence to practice, prediction of and training for ethical behavior.
2. Research, writing, and therapist training in the area of treatment of the seriously abused patient. This includes post-traumatic stress disordered patients, borderline personality disordered patients, and multiple personality disordered patients.
3. Teaching personality theory, psychopathology, and psychotherapy skills to adult learners.
4. The supervision of psychotherapy through audio & video tape.
5. Psychology and law, including questions of how to evaluate and treat mentally disordered offenders, the place of trauma treatment in prisons, the role of trauma in generating criminal behavior.

Current Clinical/Community Interests

- 1) Treatment of multiply abused patients. Training, workshops, and presentations to others involved in treatment of severe abuse. Supervision of therapists working with severe abuse survivors. Treatment of dissociative patients.

- 2) Mental health law and public policy.
- 3) The supervision of psychotherapy.

Professional Memberships

- 1) American Psychological Association
- 2) New Hampshire Psychological Association
- 3) Society for the Study of Traumatic Stress (ISTSS Society)
- 4) International Society for the Study of Trauma & Dissociation (ISSTD)
- 5) Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB)
- 6) American College of Forensic Examiners
- 7) Prescribing Psychologist's Register

Professional References

Furnished on Request